Upon your receipt of this notice, you are prohibited from removing or attempting from removing the money, property, or credits until expressly permitted by the Court. Any violation of this prohibition subjects you to punishment for contempt of court.

- (1) Workers' Compensation Benefits;
- (2) Unemployment Compensation Payments;
- (3) Cash assistance payments under the Ohio works first program
- (4) Benefits and services under the prevention, retention, and contingency program
- (5) Disability financial assistance administered by the Ohio department of job and family services
- (6) Social security benefits
- (7) Supplemental security income (S.S.I)

- (9) Black lung benefits
- (10) Certain pensions

There may be other benefits not included in the above list that apply in your case.

If you dispute the judgment creditor's right to garnish your property and believe that he should not be given your money, property, or credits, other than personal earnings, now in the possession of the garnishee because they are exempt or if you feel that this order is improper for any other reason, you may request a hearing before this court by disputing the claim in the request for hearing form, appearing below, or in a substantially similar form, and delivering the request of hearing to this court at the above address, at the office of the Clerk of this Court no later than the end of the fifth business day after you receive this notice. You may state your reasons for disputing the judgment creditor's right to garnish your property on the space provided on the form; however, you are not required to do so. If you do state your reasons for disputing the judgment creditor's right, you are not prohibited from stating any other reasons at the hearing. If you do not state your reasons, it will not be held against you by the court, and you can state your reasons at the hearing. No objections to the judgment itself will be heard or considered at the hearing. If you request a hearing, the hearing will be limited to a consideration of the amount of your money, property, or credits, other than personal earnings, and the possession or control of the garnishee, if any, that can be used to satisfy all or part of the judgment you owe to the judgment creditor.

If you request a hearing by delivering your request for hearing no later than the end of the fifth business day after you receive this notice, said hearing will be added to the court docket and notification of time and date will be sent to you. If you do not request a hearing by delivering your request for hearing card to the court, some of your money, property, or credits, other than personal earnings, will be paid to the judgment creditor.

If you have any questions concerning this matter, you may contact the office of the clerk of this court. If you want legal representation you should contact your lawyer immediately. If you need the name of a lawyer, contact the local bar association.
