Where Are We Investing?

- •We continue to believe that the Fed will not raise interest rates until late 2015 to early 2016.
- •Short Maturities: For maturities inside of 2 years, our view is that the greatest value is in bank products.
- •Long Maturities: We continue to believe there is value in callable U.S. agency securities in the 3-5 year range, and we are recommending clients target a 30-40% allocation of their core investment portfolio to this maturity range.
