

PORTAGE COUNTY COMMON PLEAS COURT
JUVENILE DIVISION
STANDARD IN-STATE PARENTING TIME SCHEDULE

Liberal companionship arrangements are encouraged, as contact with both parents is important to the minor child(ren). The best parenting time schedule is your own. All parties are strongly encouraged to develop their own plan. However, if the parents are unable to agree, the Court has designed this plan to ensure that the minor child(ren) has frequent and consistent contact with both parents.

Parenting time is a personal privilege granted by the Court to further develop the parent-child relationship. Parenting time is to be exercised for the benefit of the parent and child and not principally for the benefit of any third party. Abuse of the parenting time privilege may be grounds for later modification of those privileges.

The child and residential parent have no duty to await the other parent for more than thirty (30) minutes of the designated exchange time. If the non-residential parent is more than thirty (30) minutes late, the parenting time is forfeited.

Parents shall share the responsibility for transportation. Unless otherwise agreed, the parent receiving the child shall provide the transportation for the child for weekend and holiday companionship time. Unless otherwise agreed or provided by court order, the exchanges shall take place at each parent's residence. Unless otherwise agreed, for any weeknight companionship time, the non-residential parent shall be responsible for all the transportation.

I. WEEKEND AND MIDWEEK COMPANIONSHIP SCHEDULE
