

Self-Guided Wildflower Walk at Dix Park

This list includes wildflowers in bloom along the trails as of April 23, 2021. If you observe a blooming plant that is not on this list, please text (330-813-8023) or email (jcwhite@portageparkdistrict.org) Jennifer a photo for identification.

___ Dame's Rocket (Hesperis matronalis) - non-native invasive

___ Purple Deadnettle (Lamium purpureum) - non-native

___ Garlic Mustard (Alliaria petiolata) - non-native invasive

___ Skunk Cabbage (Symplocarpus foetidus)

___ Small-flowered Buttercup (Ranunculus abortivus)

___ Canada Mayflower (Maianthemum canadense)

___ Bear Corn (Conopholis americana)

___ Golden Ragwort (Packera aurea)

___ Yellow Trout Lily (Erythronium americanum)

___ May-apple (Podophyllum peltatum)

___ Cut-leaved Toothwort (Cardamine concatenata)

___ Jack-in-the-Pulpit (Arisaema triphyllum)

___ Spring Beauty (Claytonia virginica)

___ Ramps (Allium tricoccum)

___ Purple Cress (Cardamine douglassii)

___ Marsh Marigold (Caltha palustris)

___ Large-flowered Trillium (Trillium gandiflorum)

___ Halberd-leaf Violet (Viola hastata)

___ Early Blue Cohosh (Caulophyllum gigantea)

___ Red Trillium (Trillium erectum)

___ Wild Geranium (Geranium maculatum)

___ Common Blue Violet (Viola sororia)

The path used to format this list: Farm Lane; left to Trillium Trail; cross over Farm Lane to Fox Trail; left to Farm Lane and back to parking lot. The highest diversity of blooms can be found along the Trillium Trail.