G. Financial Obligations of RPC Members

The financial obligations of the members to pay their proportional share of the operating expenses shall continue until such time as the majority of the members vote to dissolve the RPC.

H. Disposition of Assets of the Commission

1. Real Estate:

a. Default - General

If the Regional Planning Commission defaults on the terms of the agreement with the Portage County Commissioners or any other entity holding title to real property which the RPC is paying debt service on, the owner of the property may:

1. Sell the property to pay off the remaining debt. After all sales costs have been subtracted from the sale, any remaining equity accrued will be given to the RPC; or
2. The owner may keep the property for their use, subject to USDA approval. An appraisal will be conducted and any equity accrued from the time the RPC began managing the property shall be paid to the RPC.

b. Default Without RPC Dissolution

In the event of default without dissolution of the RPC, any remaining equity shall be distributed back to the RPC as an organization in a manner described above.

c. Default With RPC Dissolution

In the event a majority of the RPC members have voted to dissolve the RPC, any equity accrued after all selling costs have been paid, shall be used to first pay any remaining debts of the RPC, then if there are funds remaining, they shall be redistributed back to the membership in a manner proportional to the amount of the dues contribution by each of the members. (i.e. percentage of total dues paid by each member)

2. Disposition of Real Estate Owned by RPC

In the event that the RPC has title to property and it is dissolved by a vote of majority of the RPC members, the property shall be appraised, and sold. The proceeds from the sale after all selling costs have been paid shall be used to pay off any remaining RPC debts and obligations. If there are any funds remaining, they shall be redistributed to the membership in a manner proportional to the amount of the dues contribution by each member. (Percentage of the total dues paid by each member.)

3. Disposition of Other Assets

In the event the RPC is dissolved by a vote of the majority of the members of the RPC, the value of the assets of the RPC shall be determined and appraised where necessary. Disposition of the assets may be in one or combination of methods as follows:

- a. Debts of the RPC shall take priority in determining the distribution of assets. Cash available shall be used to pay debts, and then if necessary the assets shall be sold in compliance with any state or federal applicable laws, for any further debt payment.
- b. After all debts/obligations are satisfied, any remaining cash on hand after the sale of assets shall be redistributed to the membership in a manner proportional to the amount of dues contribution by each of the members. (percentage of total dues paid by each member.)
- c. After all debts and obligations are satisfied, the RPC may choose to donate any assets to other governmental units or nonprofit organizations. Such decision shall be made in compliance with state and federal laws and shall be decided by a majority of the members before the dissolution effective date.

I. Rate of Mileage Reimbursement

Employees and Commission members conducting business for the Regional Planning Commission shall be reimbursed for mileage at a rate consistent with the Federal Internal Revenue Service standard mileage rate in effect on January 1st of each year.

Section XI AMENDMENT PROCEDURES

These rules and regulations may be amended in accordance with the following procedures:

- A. A resolution approving the form of such proposed amendment, adopted by the Commission for consideration at the next meeting of the Commission or set forth in a petition signed by at least three (3) members and delivered to the Secretary at least fifteen (15) days in advance of the next regular meeting of the Commission, shall be mailed by the Secretary to all members of the Commission not more than ten (10) days nor less than five (5) days prior to the next meeting of the Commission.
- B. Such proposed amendment shall be presented at the next regular meeting of the Commission and be considered as moved and seconded for adoption. Such amendment shall be deemed recommended for adoption upon receiving the affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the Commission.
- C. Upon adoption of such amendment, it shall be forwarded to the member communities designated representatives.

Section XII INCLUSION OF STATUTES AND SEVERANCE CLAUSE

- A. All applicable statutes and subsequent revisions of the State of Ohio are included in these By-Laws and made a part hereof.
- B. The invalidity of any section or provision of the Resolution of Cooperation or By-Laws shall not invalidate any other section or portion thereof.

Section XIII WITHDRAWAL

Any member may withdraw their cooperation by a Resolution, Ordinance or other appropriate authorizing action to do so and delivering a certified copy thereof approved by the members board or planning commission of said political subdivision to the Secretary of the Regional Planning Commission by January 1st to withdraw by December 31st of that year, which is one fiscal year.

Such notice of withdrawal shall not relieve the withdrawing party of its obligation to contribute its proportional share of the costs of the Commission for the 12 months prior to the actual withdrawal date.

Section XIV DISSOLUTION PROCEDURE

In the event that dissolution of the Portage County Regional Planning Commission becomes necessary, the procedure to dissolve shall be as follows:

- A. The Executive Committee shall prepare a letter and substantiating Documentation of evidence as to why the Portage County Regional Planning Commission should be dissolved, and the date that such dissolution should become effective.
- B. Such letter and documentation shall be mailed to all RPC members, and the Planning Commissions of member municipalities, the Boards of Township Trustees of member Townships, and the Board of Portage County Commissioners.

Such letter, documentation and evidence shall be mailed 90 days In advance of the proposed dissolution date to the above parties.

- C. Confirmation of agreement or disagreement shall be obtained in writing from a $\frac{3}{4}$ majority of all the Regional Planning Commission members, not just those who attend the RPC meetings.
- D. A special meeting of the Regional Planning Commission shall be held to discuss the outcome of the written vote by all the members at least 30 days prior to the proposed dissolution date.
 - 1. If a viable alternative(s) to dissolution are proposed, dissolution shall be stayed in order to investigate the feasibility of the alternative(s) proposed. A time frame shall be established for such investigation and at its conclusion, the feasibility of the alternative(s) mailed to all the parties named in subsection B for consideration.
 - 2. If a $\frac{3}{4}$ majority of the voting membership agree that the Alternative(s) put forth are feasible and meet the needs and Objectives of the Commission, dissolution shall not occur. The Planning Commission members shall then be responsible for insuring the continued operation of the Portage County Regional Planning Commission in a manner that allows for organizational effectiveness in the provision of comprehensive planning services for Portage County.

3. If a majority of the membership do not agree the alternative(s) is feasible, then the Portage County Regional Planning Commission shall be considered dissolved on the agreed upon effective date.
- E. If dissolution proceeds, all debts of the Commission shall be paid as is possible, and all staff of the Commission shall be paid first For their time and expenses if any is owed them, and at least 2 weeks notice provided to them of the effective date of the dissolution. After staff of the Commission have been provided for, all other debts of the Commission shall be paid to the maximum extent possible, including selling of assets as described in Section X. (H.)
